Treasurers Report, motion to accept by Jaci, seconded by Sandy

Directors Report: Josh said the last game went well. Sign up sheets are going up for the kids to sign up for pie day stations. The mailbox system is working well for papers. He ordered music for the parade, we will use hand warmers again to help the valves from freezing. Talked about possibly making bows with pockets to hold them?

Old Business: We are ready to go with Scrip fundraiser. Rayme said she put thru a practice order and it went fine. If we put orders in by Friday, they will be in by the next thurs/fri. Jaci volunteered to help separate orders.

Pie Day, this Saturday. Have about 1350 pies preordered a bit less than last year. Michelle will call and see if we can adjust apple and dough ordered. If we have extra apples, Rae said she can make applesauce for the craft show. Doug will pick up the apples and be back about 3:45. Pre set up on fri will be about 2-3pm. Need desserts, sides for Saturday.

Craft show Nov 21. checking into donations of hotdogs/pop. Kim S will help with the raffle. Need admission help, Jaci and Tammy volunteered. Mr Eash will put out an email and on website information on the craft show.

Color guard may help with Pictures with Santa and Choir with free gift wrapping. Gift wrap donations welcome! Admission will be $1. and kids will get community service hours.

Uniforms. Kids need to be more respectful of the old uniforms. Need to order more windsuits for color guard for parade. Can order some bibbers to tide us over till get new uniforms.

New Business: Disney Trip. Josh is looking into the different type of trips available and costs. It was brought up the possibility of choir/and/or 8th graders going also. Est at this time of at least $800 per person.

Scrapbook Crop date is April 17th, set up 16th.

Christmas concert dec 10th. Jaci has the donated baskets for the Chinese raffle. Both sides of the gym will be open this year for the concert. Need to put up concert information on the marquee in front of the school.

Kim Salinaz is looking into time frame for the Calendars. Kodak will be printing them with multiple colors and picture options.

Meeting adjourned 8:30pm.

Next meeting November 17.
